UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

NAVAL RESERVE OFFICER'S TRAINING CORPS

The U of U NROTC Mission Statement

To develop Midshipmen and Officer Candidates mentally, morally and physically, and to instill in them the highest ideals of Honor, Courage, Commitment. To commission college graduates as Naval Officers who possess a professional background, are motivated toward careers in the Naval Service, and have a potential for future development in mind and character in order to assume the highest responsibilities of command, citizenship, and government.

ROTC Courses

Naval Science courses are required for all Midshipmen, each semester. These courses teach military fundamentals, leadership, and basic skills that are necessary to becoming a Naval Officer.

Weekly Lab

Each week, the battalion members meet in a laboratory setting with instruction and practical application related to further honing the leadership and skills required of a Naval Officer.

THE
OF UTAH

Physical Training

Battalion members will meet as a group for physical training. The Navy and Marine Corps take pride in physical fitness, and living a healthy lifestyle. The weekly physical fitness training is designed to consistently improve the physical readiness of Naval Officers.

Academics

As a NROTC Midshipman, your main goal will be academic excellence, and the completion of your college degree. Here at the U of U NROTC, your instructors, advisors, and fellow Midshipmen will assist in this task. We also employ calculus and physics tutors at no cost to you.
